

The Cabin
By Crysta and Samantha

Once there was an old rusty cabin. No one lived there. No one wants to live there. One day there was some people visiting the cabin and saw a ghost with a wedding dress walking towards them and they got so scared and ran out of the cabin. Beware the ghost with wedding dress haunts the cabin today. "Boo!" Chad said while creeping behind Vanessa. Vanessa screamed! "That isn't funny Chad." "Well that wasn't me." Said Chris mischievously. "Then who scared me?" Said Vanessa. "Boo!" "Ahhhhh!!!!" Vanessa screamed. "Who are you?" Vanessa asked. "I am Trisha beware this cabin is haunted." Trisha and Chad why are you two trying to scare me so often?" Vanessa said. "Well we can't help it, we told you this house is haunted, and it is fun scaring you," Trisha and Chad said.

"I see the cabin come on Vanessa and Chad. Chad said "Yes."

"No." Said Vanessa.

"Come on!" Said Trisha and Chad. "Alright I guess." Said Vanessa.

"Omg! Is that blood on the cabin?" asked Vanessa.

"Boo!" Chad said laughing.

"Ahhhh!" "Don't do that Chad!" Vanessa said mad.

"Sorry geez." Chad said. "Let's go in." Said Trisha and Chad.

They went into the cabin and Vanessa saw something. Suddenly Vanessa passed out.

"Vanessa!" "Vanessa!!" Chad and Trisha screamed. Then Vanessa woke up and thought it was a dream, but she said that she was in the cabin. "Chad! Trisha!" Vanessa shouted. Trisha and Chad were not there, Vanessa ran and ran down the stairs until she reached the front door. Finally, she reached the front door. She wiggled the door knob. It wasn't open. So, she started banging on the door saying "Help! Help!" Vanessa screamed.

As she started to cry, she heard a door open and a bang on the wall. Bang!

Bang! Creeeeeeek. Then she heard a scratch on the wall. "What was that?"

Vanessa asked. Vanessa saw a lady coming near her with a wedding dress and with flowers in her hand. "My husband and I lived here." Said the ghost.

"Okay." Said Vanessa.

"I wasn't home for two weeks, and when I came home, he had passed out. I took him to the hospital, and he died. Now I haunt this place." Said the ghost.

"Why does everyone say you haunt this place?" asked Vanessa.

"Now I will kill you and all your friends for breaking into my house. I'm starting with you first." Said the ghost.

Vanessa started banging on the door. Then Chad and Trisha heard the banging. They opened the door. The ghost said, "If you leave you will suffer the consequences." Chad, Trisha, and Vanessa started to run. They finally got to Vanessa's house. They were having fun during the day, but when it turned darker, they were doomed. At night they were playing hide and seek. Vanessa was hiding she decided to hide in the closet.

Suddenly she felt someone touching her. She looked and it was the ghost in the wedding dress. Vanessa ran out of there screaming. Chad and Trisha asked her

"What's wrong?" Vanessa tried to catch her breath. Vanessa said, "Look behind you!"

Trisha and Chad looked. "Ahhhhh!!" Trisha and Chad screamed. They kept running and running until suddenly they were all at the woods. They found the same cabin that Vanessa passed out in. They had no choice but to go into it because the ghost was about to catch up to them. They ran inside and ran upstairs. They all hid inside the closet. They heard someone coming into the cabin. They were covering their mouths trying not to scream. Then they heard the door of the room they were in creak. Creeeek. Creeeek. Then the door knob started to wiggle. The closet door they were in opened. They quickly ran out of the closet. They ran in a corner and the ghost was surrounding them. Vanessa saw a picture of the ghost's husband. The ghost said, "Don't break it." Vanessa got it. She thought if I break the picture the ghost will die. She grabbed the picture and threw it. "Nooooo!!" The ghost said dying quickly. The ghost was finally dead. They were back to their normal lives.

 Ten years later.

 Another group of teenagers found the cabin and found the broken picture. They decided to put the picture back together.

 The End.
