

The Empty Park

By Jackson J.

I had just got off a fun cruise. Then, I walked into the Funland Amusement Park. The longest ride there was Fudgey's Big Adventure. The park was in four parts; the Lighthouse Point, the Waterpark, the Main Section, and the West Section. Then I found out the entire park was empty. No lines, I had it all to myself. After a while I got kinda lonely. So I went to the Lighthouse Museum. I went on the roller coasters. I had cookies. Then it hit me, I can live here! So I went to the first aid center, and that was my bedroom. So I lived there forever and happily ever after. The End.
