

Eternity
Meghna Y.

She is waiting for someone.

Deep, deep into the woods, a enchanting voice lures travelers into its depths. No one has ever come back.

Standing alone, she begins to sing beautiful melody.

He looks ahead and sees a vast forest. He stops and takes in the view of the towering trees, blanketed by fog, making it hard to see ahead. He about to head back to his camp when he hears a voice and turns around.

There, he see a small girl singing in front of a huge tree.

At first, he is wary, but he soon falls under the spell of the girl's hypnotic voice. She calls out to him and with a heavenly voice, she asks " Weary traveler, why don't you rest here for a while? I'll sing to you a beautiful lullaby to put to sleep"

He responds, captivated by her voice, " Oh, of course!"

Her eyes seem to lit up when she hears his reply.

Suddenly, fatigue seems come over him. He collapses in her lap, and she catches him. Her voice fills the air again as she sings a sweet lullaby. She starts smiling eerily, but he doesn't notice. He is already fast asleep.

She whispers in his ears, "Let's stay together for eternity"

She stands all alone in front of a tree. She looks down at the hand that held the boy as he fell asleep. Her hand is holding a human skull. She slowly inspects, but then frowns and shakes her head, throwing the skull behind her. She quickly glances at her pile of skulls and sighs.

She begins to sing again.
