

My Best Friend

Written by Kelly U.

I'm Gwen, and second grade isn't easy. Now I do pass all my grades, but there is a girl.. Her name is Veronica. Everyone loves her but I don't know why; I mean like, HELLO PEOPLE, SHE'S A BULLY!! well at least to me. Everyday at recess (when Ms. Armstrong isn't looking), she and her friend, Karris, push me around and call me names like I'm nothing. At lunch, she spreads rumors about me like how I was caught picking my nose the other day, or how I was spitting on Caylis, and I'm tired of it. Now you are probably wondering, "Why don't you tell a teacher?", "Why don't you tell your parents?" Nah. I don't do that. I talk to my best friend, but I don't talk to Him face to face, I write to Him! His name is God. It's kinda like He's famous cause He is friends with a lot of people. He answers all my questions, and He answers them in my head. But He didn't answer that one question I asked a while ago, "Where do babies come from?" Guess I'll never know. I have a book I use to write to God, I call it The Book Of Wonder. So every time Veronica is bullying me, I start writing.

Today at school during math class, Veronica threw a paper ball at me. I opened it up to see the note she wrote." You look like a dog that was left in the rain for 300 years! !" the paper read.

Forget that stupid paper, I had God. (IN YOUR FACE VERONICA'. I wrote...

" Hey God. How are you doing today?

I was wondering if I could have a better day tomorrow... alright bye.!!

TOMMOROW

Guess what? Today Veronica and I kinda got along, she handed me her chips cause she did not want them, and I handed her mine. " How did you know Ruffles were my favorite? " she asked. I said, " How did you know that Fritos were my favorite!" From then on we started trading chips every now and then. I write in TheBook Of Wonder everyday now so my days with Veronica can get better and better.

Eventually Veronica stopped being Karris 's friend because of her behavior. .

3 years later

Dear God, I'm in 5th grade now.

Oh, and thanks for the cool magic trick you did in second grade. Me and Veronica are bestfriends now. I honestly thought that she would end up doing something really bad to me, which ends up with me in the hospital or something. Gladly not... Now....

Where do babies come from?!

Your friend,

Gwen Smith
