

The Creepy Hotel

By DaTrell S.

Long ago there was a creepy hotel that nobody dared to go in. Mike is an ordinary kid in high school with two best friends named John and Ana.

Mike, John, and Ana rode the same bus to school. Every day they go to school, and always run into a jock named Adam. This day is special though, today Adam forces the three into the creepy hotel with a gun.

Mike, John, and Ana are scared. Mike hears a creaking sound, so they all run.

Then John gets caught and dragged down the hallway. Now there are only two left Mike and Ana. While they are running Mike gets lost. The two are separated, all of a sudden Ana finds a room with light it was the skin of a creature. Hiding in a corner Ana finds something unknown to humans. It was a creature wrapping John in a cocoon. Mike ends up finding a light also, but the light was an outside light. Mike rushes to it and escapes. The creature leaves the room Ana is in, so Ana quickly unwraps John. John stands up and tells Ana to run and forget about him. Ana refuses and helps

John out the room. They stop because they see more than ten creatures.

Mike quickly finds help from the police. Soon the police come with many cars. One of the men asked Mike what was happening. When Mike tells them, they all go in the hotel and find both John and Ana. They weren't alive though. Everyday since that day Mike visited John's grave and Ana's grave praying for them to live in peace in heaven.
