

The Greatest Game of Baseball Ever Played

By Aiden P. and Lucky E.

Two strikes, three balls, two outs with bases loaded, and the bottom of the ninth. The Blazers are down by one against Team Mizuno. Tanner comes in to pitch to Houston Vick. The catcher gives the sign to throw the breaking ball. Tanner nods his head yes to the catcher. Tanner pitches the ball and then...

Team Mizuno face the Blazers for the Championship. The first inning is starting. Team Mizuno starter Jack warms up with the catcher Lucky. The warmups are done, and the first inning starts. Lucky signals to throw a fastball. Jack goes into his windup and, heaves the ball on the bottom right corner for a strike. 0-1 the count the umpire yells. The changeup sign comes from Lucky, but Jack nods his head no. Lucky gives another signal for a fastball, and with a blink of an eye it is a strike right down the pipe over 100 mph. Lucky signals a breaking ball for the final pitch of the at bat. It is in there for a strike. The umpire yells strike three. Jack strikes the next two batters out to end the inning. Team Mizuno are up to bat with Jack up first. He gets a pitch right down the pipe. He looks down at that pitch and hears the ump call out STRIKE!!!! The next pitch is right where he likes down low in the middle. He smacks the ball down the third base line for a double. He gets into second sliding head first. Next up is Collin that looks at the first strike. The second two pitches are breaking balls that he swings and misses on. Then the next batter gets out. In the second inning no runs are scored due to good pitching. In the top of the third inning the Blazers score 3 runs. One on a homer another off of an over throw, and the third one was a base hit to the outfield. Then after that Team Mizuno pulled a double play to end the inning. Team Mizuno are now up to bat. Lucky is up. He looks at the first pitch to see how the pitcher pitches. The second pitch is right down the pipe and BANG!!!! It is a home run over 430 feet and makes the score 1-3. Lucky trots around the bases. The players cleared the dugout and started to jump up and down with Lucky. Tanner comes up to bat. The first one is a ball in the dirt. The next pitch is a strike outside. Then the next one he swings at is hit to shortstop for an out. The next two batters for Team Mizuno strike out. Blazer's batters strike out for three outs. Now is starting the bottom of the third, and Team Mizuno are starting to bat. Christian is up to bat, and he looks at the first pitch that is down in the dirt. The next pitch he hits up the middle between the shortstop and second base for a single. Diego and the next batter get out. The fourth inning is nothing big. It was six up and six down. Now the fifth inning is starting, and we are pitching. On the very first pitch Jack throws, the batter pops up to center field. The next pitch he throws is a single to the outfield. The third batter hits a ground ball towards third base, and... Collin makes a diving stop and throws to Christian at second. Christian turns and throws to Xavier at first just in time to complete a double play. Jack thanks Collin for the three-pitch inning. Now after the Blazers batted, Team Mizuno is now up. The ninth batter West is now up. He looks at the first pitch down in the dirt, and then the next pitch is BANGGGGGG!!!! He hits a homer to right field just over the fence to make the score 2-3. The next three batters get out. The sixth inning starts, and all three of the Blazers batters get out. Our part of the lineup did not do good also it was a three up three down. In the next inning, the Blazers only single. Then Team Mizuno get the bases loaded by singles. Now Jack swings for the fences at the first pitch but misses. Then he swings with all his might and as soon as the crowd hears the crack off the bat, they knew right away it was a homer. They all cheered on their feet. Now the score is 6-3. The next three batters get out after the amazing grand slam. Then the eighth inning starts. Tanner is now the pitcher, and the Blazers are back up to bat. The pitcher gets set and throws down the pipe. The batter smacks the ball to left field barely making it out of the field. Now the score is 6-4. Team Mizuno are up in score. The next batter hits a triple to right field. Then the next batter hits a single up the middle and scores another run. The score is 6-5. The next three batters get out. Then Team Mizuno's lineup did a three up three down again. The ninth inning starts. The Blazers are now batting. The first batter is up and grounds to short. He is out by a lot. The next batter strikes out on a really good slider. Now Houston Vick is up. The first pitch is a strike. The second is outside for a ball. The next two are balls inside and outside. Then another strike which makes the count 3-2. Full count, two outs, down by one and bottom of the ninth. Then a nasty breaking ball. The crowd goes wild after Tanner struck the batter out. Team Mizuno takes the victory for the championship!
