

Maksi Big Change

By: Natalya P

There was a boy named Maksi and he was 11. He lived with his mom and dad and his one sister Rose. Rose was 7 years old and was a sweet, cute girl. Life was hard for him with being the oldest kid in his family, but he had one dream which was to be a basketball player that was all he wanted since he was 5 but sadly his mom wants him to be a soccer player or any other sport player but basketball. But his onesister got what she wanted which was her dream of being a hip-hop dancer and want to hip-hop class every Saturday. Maksi never knew how to get his mom to let him do his dream. So Maksi went to school and during math class he learned division and he was the last one to finish and everyone hated waiting for him but Maksi got a 100 on his test and everyone got a 70 for rushing which was embarrassing. At lunch Maksi was sitting alone at a table and a girl named Summer sat by him at lunch. At the end of the day he played basketball with the kids there and his principal saw Maksi. He asked him if he could go in the game and he said yes. Which made the principal very happy. What Maksi didn't know was his principal told his mom to come to the game. So, the game started on Maksi's birthday, which was January 13th and his mom, dad, and sister were there. They saw how good Maksi was and he got his team 20 points and the other team got 0. When the game was over Maksi's mom gave Maksi a big hug and said the words, do what you want which Maksi became very famous and very very happy.
