

Down In Africa

By: Ace O.

Braden went on a trip to Africa. He was going on a lion hunt. After arriving to the camp place, but before he went to bed, he had to set up the camp and get his guns ready. Then, Braden woke up at 5:30 to go lion hunting. Braden was 10 miles from the hunting spot when his hunting car broke down. So, he had to walk back to camp.

He started walking. Braden was 20 miles from the camp site and he saw a Black Mamba! He tried to go around the snake but the snake hissed at him. So he shot the snake. BOOM!!

Braden kept on walking. Braden was not too far away when it started to get dark. He arrived to the camp site and put his guns up.

The next morning at 7:00am Braden got his stuff in the other hunting vehicle and went hunting. He saw one lion and shot it. Then he went to get the first vehicle that had broken down. So, he towed it back to the camp site. When he got back, he spent one more night in Africa. Braden woke up and packed up to go to the airport.

Down in Africa

p.2

Braden went back to Fulshear, Texas to see his family. The plane ride was 19 hours. He arrived in Houston and drove 30 miles to get to Fulshear. He got back after dropping off his lion at a mounting place. Then he got home and said hi to his family. They had dinner together and watched TV for a little bit. Then they went to bed.

In the morning he took his son to school. Read the next book about Braden's son's first day of school!