

The Invisible Girl

By: Laura S.

Leslie always dressed up black, and her parents don't care about her because they have a lot of work. This made her feel like she was invisible. The only people that care about her are her friends and her stepsister. They are always with her. Her stepsister, Estefania, is always with her when she is lonely. Their parents or separated and, Leslie takes turns being with her mom and dad.

One day, Leslie and Estefania went to the mall. They went to a lot of places in the mall. Finally, Estefania bought Leslie a necklace. Now they were ready to eat. When they got home Leslie's dad didn't want to eat because he was going with her stepmother to a restaurant. Her dad was rich, but she didn't care about the money. She cared about having love from her dad.

Leslie was feeling bad when her dad came back, so they took her to the hospital. Her dad was very worried. Her real mom came, and she was crying. The doctor told them that Leslie had cancer.

Every since the doctor told Leslie's parents that she has cancer, they are always with her. But Estefania is trying to make Leslie strong and keeps telling he to never give up.
