Once, there was a girl named Ashley. She was outside in the night 12 minutes later, something appeared. It was an unusual portal. She entered in the portal because she was curious. When she entered the portal, she saw dragons with people who train them.

Ashley was surprised at what she was seeing then some dragon appeared to her. The dragon was friendly. Ashley called the dragon Mint because he was green. Ashley trained the dragon very good. By training Mint Ashley was able to go back to her home back to the other world. The other world wasn't named yet, so she called it Dragon's Path. Everything was beautiful and nice. Ashley had helped dragons and the dragons helped her. Thankfully, Mint helped her get back to her own world and it was peaceful and loving in Dragon Path.
