

Making a Friend

Written by: Irvin

Once upon a time, there was a boy named Alexander. He was 7 years old and he lived in Texas with his mom. He and his mom were sad because Alexander's dad passed away on his way to his job in a horrible car accident. To make things worse, Alexander had two more problems in school. He had no friends and he was being bullied. He had no idea how to make friends at school. One day, the bullies grabbed his backpack and threw it in the basketball net. They ran away and Alexander was left trying to get his backpack down. When he finally got his backpack, he went home. On his way home he thought that maybe he should tell someone about the bullies. At home, he ran to tell his mom about what was happening at school. Alexander's mom told the school principal about the two bullies at the school. And guess what? The school principal called the bullies' moms and told her that her sons were bullying poor Alexander. So the principal expelled the two bullies out of the school. The next morning, Alexander woke up happy for school because he finally got rid of his problem. At school that day, Alexander saw a kid named Jerry. At recess, Alexander asked Jerry if he would like to hang out with him and Jerry said, "Yes!" They became good friends and made a promise to each other that they were not going to let any bullies bother them anymore.

The End