

The haunted library

One day I woke up to go to school. I took a shower then I put my clothes on. After that, I was eating breakfast, and then I got my backpack and rushed to my car. My mom drove me to the school. When I entered the school, I went to my classroom. Then I heard weird noises coming from the library. I tried to see what was making the noises but I could not see anything. So, I went inside to check what was inside the library. I saw nothing but I still heard does creepy noises. When I got closer to the bookshelves the noise became louder and louder. When I touched a book, it was slimy and sticky. But, no one was there so I decided to check in all of doors. However, when I was going further away from the bookshelves I heard less noise. So, I wanted to check again so I went closer to the bookshelves but suddenly they stopped. The books were falling on the floor. Ants were appearing everywhere so I tried to step on all of them but some of them died and some of them survived. But, the ants kept on appearing. Suddenly the teacher entered the library. When she entered the library, the ants were starting to go away. If she would not have entered the library I would be hurt.
