

Andrea C.

The Love Story

This is a story how Cupid became real. In a faraway town there was this small school with a lot of children and it was very hard for the teachers. In this room there were two children that always listened. Their names were Rose Cupid and Jackson Carvajal. Rose had a crush on Jackson!

So everyday Jackson and Rose would ride their bikes together because they were bike buddies but one day something happened that changed everything when Jackson was going to the store with his mom. They got in a car crash and only the mom survived.

The news spread and soon enough Rose heard the news and she cried and cried because she lost her true love and her only friend. Years passed and when she turned 18 years old, she died out of sadness. Her heart became empty, dark and had no love and she became a goddess. People say she roams the streets trying to find somebody that does not have anybody to love and would match them with the perfect mate. That's how Cupid was born.

The End