

A Long Way Till Home

Many years ago there was a girl who was named Mary. Mary was a family of four her mom Kelly, her dad John, and her dog Bruno. Mary did not have a lot of friends, well if she did she couldn't be friends with them for a while you see Mary is a military kid. She moved way to much. It was hard for Mary, because her dad is always in some sort of war, and her mom is always teaching piano lessons. The only friend she really has is Bruno. One Sunday morning Mary had decided that she wants to take a stroll at the park, however the shortest way to the park was through the woods. When she was about to take the shortcut through the wood, the butcher boy said 'Who ever goes in never comes out.' Shaking with fear, however Mary still took the shortcut.

When Mary went through the woods she heard nothing, until the seconds ticked by she heard screaming and crying the girl was crying for help. Mary thought I have to save the girl. Mary ran as fast as she could, but when Mary arrived she saw nothing she heard nothing. Mary's jaw was to the ground she was shocked at what she saw. Mary saw herself, but that little girl was crying wright when Mary was about to give the little girl a hug the little girl screamed she said 'Give me your body I have soul, but I don't have a body.' Mary ran for her life, but she was to late. That little girl stole Mary's body. When that little came out of the woods no one new who she was although she had the same body has Mary people new that was not Mary, that was some little girl. No one new who the little girl was but until next time.
