

Susanna Stone and the Three Elements

By: Isabella C.

Chapter 1

Dear Diary,

If I have to repeat the seven continents one more time I'm going to cry. I'm in Mr. Arnold's class right now, and we're supposed to be learning about history, but instead we are going over the continents. It's supposedly supposed to help us understand history.

Love-

"Susanna", I heard Mr. Arnold screech, "This is the third time this week you've been caught writing in my class. Detention!"

"Great", I muttered, "It's going to be a long day."

Chapter 2

When class ended, Mr. Arnold approached my desk. “Susanna,” he said, “why must you write in my class?”

“I don’t know”, I replied.

“You are a smart girl Ms. Stone, yet you seem to detest geography. Why is that?”

“I’ve never seen its importance.”

“Alright. Well, I know it’s hard to believe, but I’m cursed and I need the three elements (Earth, Wind, and Fire) to help heal me and only you can get them. I know this is a lot, so I will give you three things to help you on your quest.”, he reached into his pocket and grabbed three things.

“This sword”, he said holding up pocket knife, ”And this, the pouch for the elements”, he said holding up a small black bag. “And lastly give this locket to the last guardian you meet.” He handed me the items.

“Your joking.....right?”

“No. Well.....Good-bye!”

Before I could ask anything, I was whisked into unconsciousness.

Chapter 3

When I regained consciousness, I found myself in a small village. As I started walking around, a friendly looking girl approached me.

“You must be new here. My name is Maria what’s yours?”, she asked.

“Susanna”, I replied, ”Um.....where are we?”

“Jamestown, Virginia. Hey, would you like to play in the field?”

“Sure?”

“Come on”, Maria dragged me into an alluring field.

We talked and played, but then a flower caught my eye. It was emerald green, it’s the Earth element. When I reached out to grab it, the flower moved in the direction of a huge willow tree. I kept chasing the flower, yet it kept moving. Soon Maria caught on and we were both running after the flower.

The flower reached the tree, and the tree shielded it. When I went to grab the flower the tree whacked me with its branches. I fell to the ground with a thud, and Maria came rushing to my side.

“Are you okay”, she asked.

“I’m fine”, I replied. “We need to get the flower it’s-”

“The Earth element I know I’ve been waiting to see it.”

“Lets distract it”, I said, ”You go left I go right?”

“Alright on the count of three. One.....Two.....THREE!”

Maria and I both went our ways. The tree was confused and didn't know where to swing so we both got inside.

“Good job”, I said, and put the flower into my bag, and as I did everything vanished.

Chapter 4

Maria and I ended up in a broken-down warehouse. As I started walking around, I felt like I couldn't breathe. I looked over at Maria and I could tell she felt it too. We didn't have to talk to know we near the Air element.

Soon I heard a voice but I saw no one, “I know you children are dying to get out of here for in a few more minutes you shan't be able to breathe so if you can give me my name you shall be free to have the element. Here is your riddle...”

*You breathe me in you push me out
I'm sure you know the answer without a doubt.
Hurry up and speak from inside,
For if you don't you shan't survive.*

It didn't take a genius to know the answer was air, but breathing was getting hard, so I was relieved when Maria sputtered out, A-airy-your air.” As soon as these words came from her mouth, we grabbed the element and the warehouse disappeared.

Chapter 5

“Thanks”, I said to Maria when we awoke.

“Anytime”, she replied.

I just now noticed our surroundings we were in a castle and sitting on a red throne was an angelic girl. On her right there was a blue throne and a faint figure of a guy sitting in it. Then on her left there was a earthtone throne and in it sat a pretty woman. These were the Guardians.

Just then the red haired girl spoke, “Who dares to step foot into the castle of Franchesca the Fire Queen?”

“Susanna Stone your majesty”, I said, “and my friend”

“Maria Sherman”, Maria finished.

“And why are you in my castle?”

“To get the fire element”, I said, for I knew lying was useless. The look on Franchesca's face went from amused to angry in a heartbeat.

“Guards seize them!”, she yelled.

As quick as I could, I grabbed my knife and clicked the button. A huge bronze sword appeared in front of me just as a guard was attacking. He jabbed me in my ribcage and I fell down. He was about to finish me when I remembered...

“Wait!”, I exclaimed. The guard stopped and looked at me quizzically. “Lady Franchesca I have something for you.”, I gave her the locket and she opened it.

“My love trusted you with this.....you must be special to him. Spare her and her friend”, Franchesca said. She gave me the Fire element and said “Please give him this element. Good-bye Susanna, Maria.”

“Good-bye”, Maria and I said and then we were gone.

Epilogue

Maria and I were back in the field, but I knew I had to go, so we said our good-byes and went our separate ways though we promised to stay in touch. I gave the elements to Mr. Arnold and he cured himself and thanked me. And as for me, well I’m going to go home and relax, keep on learning, and have fun!
