

Mina 0

THE SECRET OF THE RAINBOW GEM

Once lived a girl nicknamed Ruby because she found so much ruby gems in her life. One day she went as usual confidently searching for gems. When she started searching she didn't find a single ruby but what she did find was more special it was rainbow gem that was shiny and had a crack. Then when she took a close look at it she realized that there was writing that looked old. She decided to take it out into the sunlight and when she looked at the writing and this time it was written in English when she read it said I will get my revenge on the rocks. Ruby was surprised to hear this because her last name was rock but then she thought it wasn't her family. When ruby went home she realized what she said was completely wrong they where after her family cause she saw so much smoke and pieces of bricks and nobody was at her family's house. She called her parents to tell them about what happened to the house. While she was calling her parents she told theme that she found a rainbow gem then her parents asked did it say I will get my revenge on the rocks. Ruby answered yes very confused that they know then her parents told her to find a house for her to live at. As she was walking to her car she found strangers looking at her and they quickly grabbed their guns and aiming at her so she was running as fast as she can while getting her keys to go to her car trying to escape. While she turned on her engine the people quickly went on there motorcycles she looked in the mirror to see how close they where to catch up to her when she was looking at their neck she realized that they had the missing piece of the gem so ruby thought that those people wanted revenge. Ruby was panicking so much that she almost fainted while driving. Ruby was watching how close those people where to her she realized they where far away so she decided to go to the police station. While ruby got out of the car she quickly ran inside the police station she imminently told them that there are people chasing her that want to kill her. soon when the men came to the police station the police looked at them and they where imminently arrested them when they found out who they where. Ruby came out of her hiding spot very happy. The police helped her family pay for the damage that the two men caused. When she asked her parents to tell her what happened they said yes. One day when her grandpa met a man at college the became friends. When her grandpas parents met the man they hated him imminently kicked him out and the hit him from that day forward he wanted to get his revenge on the rocks and he hired people to hunt theme.