

THE MUSTANG PURSUIT!

Mustang

There was a man named Jack. He was 32 years old and lost his car. A random guy said a bunch of crooks in a black Chevy Tahoe took his car. He ran down to his friend's house to borrow a Lamborghini. He drove onto the highway as fast as he could, hoping that he would see his car again. He finally saw his car being pulled into the garage from the highway. He parked next to the garage then started running inside as fast as lightning he could. He saw his car, got in it, and then drove off like a maniac. He kept on going and going forever and never stopped driving.
