Chapter 1

The Friends that are Inseparable

Today I'm going to tell you about two best friends in the whole world. Their names are Lorin and Ally and they met at the fair when Lorin was visiting her grandma. They were inseparable from the moment they met.

Then one day something horrible happened. Lorin was moving to California. In two weeks they were leaving. The girls spent every second together before Lorin left. Then the day came for Lorin and her family to leave. They packed all morning. It was 2:30 p.m., they put everything in the car. Ally and Lorin said one last "good-bye!" Then something crazy happened while her parents were driving away. Lorin said, "Wait STOP!" They stopped the car Lorin and she ran out. Ally was already walking toward her house so Lorin ran to her and gave her one last hug. Then she gave her something from her pocket, it was a friendship bracelet. Ally was so happy she said, "Thank you so much and remember you will always be my best friend." Then Lorin's parents said "Come on let's go we can't stay here forever."

Lorin and me going to the same school and that we didn't have to be apart anymore."

Ally's parents said, "We wish that you and Lorin weren't apart, but it is what it is, Honey." All day Ally didn't act normal, usually she has a bright smile, but that day Ally had a glum face. Ally looked at the time and it was 3:30pm. That's the time Lorin always calls her. Two hours passed and Lorin still hadn't called and Ally was getting worried. Finally, Lorin called, she had gotten out of dance class late. Ally was happy Lorin was okay and they talked for hours.

Chapter 3

Lorin's 4th Grade at a New School

On the first day of fourth grade, Lorin had to make new friends and she was nervous! The only best friend that she had was Ally. Lorin did have other friends, but they all moved too. While the day was passing Lorin got home and saw a moving truck across the street. Lorin asked her mom, "Why is there a moving truck over there?" her mom said, "I'm not sure." Lorin and her mom pulled in the driveway and got out. Lorin's dad was making dinner. Lorin went to her room and got out her homework, but she couldn't stop thinking about the moving truck across the street. The next morning Lorin woke up and got ready for school. While Lorin was talking to another friend her teacher said, "Class listen up, we have a new student." Lorin was pretty excited because maybe that could be her new friend.

Birthday Parties

It was Ally's birthday and Ally's parents had a surprise, but Ally had no idea. Ally was opening her present when the doorbell rang. Ally's mom said, "Honey, can you get the door?" When she unlocked the door she saw Lorin with a present in her arms. Lorin dropped the present and gave Ally a big hug. They went inside and finished up opening presents. They spent the whole day riding all the rides. By the end of the day they were pretty tired so their parents decided it was time to take them home. As they were pulling up to Ally's house they saw a car outside and they were very curious. Lorin and Ally walked in and saw Ally's Grandma and Grandpa. Ally hadn't seen them in two years. Chapter 6

Ally and Her Friends

When Ally was at school she saw her old friends sitting at the bench. She went to go, and sit with them but they didn't talk to her, they just ignored her. Ally was very sad; she ran to the bathroom with tears running down her face. Then a new girl went into the bathroom and said, "What is the matter?" Ally said, "Well my old friends are being rude to me." The new girl told her to ignore them and that she didn't have to worry about them because she would be Ally's friend. Ally went home and told her Mom about her new friend and how happy she was.

That summer Ally's doorbell rang and Ally went to answer it. Lorin was standing at the door. Ally wondered why she was there. Lorin explained that her dad had gotten his old job back and they were going to move back and move down the street from Ally. They were so excited to be together again!
