Chapter 1

Today I am going to tell you about 2 bestest friends in the whole world. Their names are Lorin and ally. They were inseparable. Then something horrible happened. Ally was moving to Colorado. The next day, Ally's family started packing. They looked at the time and very sadly it was 2:30. They put everything in the car and Ally's parents said "wait STOP!" They stopped the car. Ally ran out the car and Lorin was already headed to school. Lorin asked where are you going. Ally had no clue what to say Ally was shaking she did not want to tell Lorin. But at the same time they both said I AM MOVING.

Chapter 2 I am Sad

When they both said that they were moving they gave each other a BIG bear hug and said I will miss you. Tears fall down they mouth leave Ally goes into her new house Lorin goes into her new house. They already miss each other but they both know that they will NEVER be split apart but something good happened.

Chapter 3 OMG

So Ally was getting pizza can you believe who she was looking at she was looking at Lorin they ran to each other they were so glad to see each other Ally goes what are you doing here Lorin Said I moved here and Ally said I moved here they ate pizza together and was NOT sad anymore. After that they went to the mall and they both so much that they couldn't even hold all of it. And what else they found out they were next door neighbors.
