

Paranormal charm

It had been their first birthday with their new stepdad, Daniel . Gabriella turning 14 and Joshua turning 11. Gabriella had wanted a new laptop and Joshua wanted a new pair of skates. The party was almost finished and it was present opening time and the last presents were from Mom and Daniel. Gabriella got what she wished for but Joshua received something quite unusual! Daniel had given Joshua an eerie looking bracelet that had an ancient tribal design on it . When everyone left the room Joshua got the bracelet and threw it to the floor!

When it landed on the floor , a clear diamond bead started glowing red ! When he touched the bead , he got transported to an EGIPTIAN CHALLENGE RINK !!! Joshua let go of the bead and he was back home . It took a while for Joshua to commprehend what happend but when he did , the first thing he did was ran to get his sister .

Joshua told Gabriella everything that had happened , but she didn't believe him . "I want to see for myself" she said . He took Gabriella to the kitchen and they both grabbed on to the bead and got transported back to the challenge rink . " OK , now I believe you ."Said Gabriella .

After the whole travaling to Egipt thing , the first thing they did was use Gabriella's computer to search up religious bracelets . Unfortunately they found nothing . They also rode their bikes to every-single pawnshop in town and when they thought all hope was lost they went to the last pawnshop in town and finally their long struggle was over .

The shop keeper said that the bracelet is one-of-a-kind and came from ancient times . "This bracelet will transport you to an Egyptian Challenge rink , you will have to fight Prince Nigrath , if you win you will receive 3 wishes , but if you lose , you will be stuck in time working for Prince Nigrath as a servant!"

" Well I'm out" said Gabriella. NO NO NO NO UH NOO you're coming with me to the battle ."
"Uhhhh fine". When Joshua and Gabriella got home they got all geared up and what no one knew was that Joshua had a secret stash of paintball guns and paint ball grenades .

"Whoa" cried Gabriella "thanks" said Joshua .

"Now , lets go" said Joshua in a shakey voice.

After getting all geared up they put on the bracelet and there was a tall buff prince threatening to kill Joshua and Gabriella ! Luckilyly they managed to escape and when the prince turned around the two siblings loaded up their paintball guns and shot the prince with balls of paint. A dwarf shows up and grants them 3 wishes and they wish to go home .

They get home and everything goes back to normal and when Joshua put on the bracelet the bead turned blue and he got his other 2 wishes . He ended up thanking his stepdad and he is just confused but all is normal again and thats what matters . Time passes and one day Joshuas son , Nicholas , finds the bracelet and goes on an adventure just like his fathers !
