Lost Dog

Mike was walking his dog, Lola, to the San Antonio Dog Park where he played with Lola. Lola got off the leash and ran away. He looked everywhere and no luck. He put up posters and asked people if they have seen his dog no one did. Mike tried his hardest to find Lola. He wanted to cry, but he saw a dog that looked like his dog. But, it was not. Ten days went by and, by now, Mike thought his dog was gone forever or, worse, dead. But, what Mike did not know was his dog was found by someone else. But, they did not notice the posters and kept Lola. Mike found another dog that looked like Lola, but it was not. Mike was scared he was not going to find Lola so he looked in every place Lola could be.

He wanted his dog Lola back so much, but Mike was never going to give up. Mike looked in the shelter and the dog park where he lost Lola and did not find Lola. Lola was scared and wanted her owner back so Lola ran out of the house and ran to the dog park waiting for her owner to look in the dog park again. Lola was not found so she ran on her four little legs and ran to her owner's house. Lola knew where her owner lived, but did not know which house it was. Mike was looking and saw this dog waiting at his door. He knew it was Lola so he ran over to his house and found Lola. They were both happy together and played all day with each other.
