

Arianna B.
Fourth Grade

The Haunted House

There was a boy named Jack who was eight years old. He and his older sister named Lily had just moved to a really spooky town, but they did not know that. They lived in a house that always made a different sound. Sometimes their house even howled like an owl.

Anyways, Jack was reading his book before bed, like always, when he heard a sound that was never heard before. Normally, Jack would still be reading his book, but he was so scared he had to stop reading. He ran to Lily's room, frightened by the sound. Jack woke Lily up. Lily woke up very tiredly and asked Jack what he wanted. Jack told the news to Lily. When Lily heard the news, she had a plan.