

Chapter 1 (Emily)

I was walking down the street to my new school. I think it was called Santa Monica middle school. I finally turn on the block where my school is located. I walk up to the big doors and go inside. The first thing I see is the front office. I go up to the lady sitting at the computer and tell her that I am a new student. "Oh! You must be Emily Johnson! My name is Ms.Reyes. It is so nice to meet you! Let me take you to your class." I walk down many hallways until I finally stop at a door.

Chapter 2 (Rachel)

"Knock! Knock!" My teacher Ms.Stafford opens the door. A short, dark haired girl enters. She has purple glasses with a thick frame on the side. The teacher introduces her. "Class, this is your new classmate Emily! She is from Minnesota." I see Emily's mouth move, but I don't hear anything. Emily looks around and I signal her to come sit next to me. She goes down the rows until she reaches the desk next to mine. When she sits down, I give her a big smile which she doesn't return.

Chapter 3 (Emily)

The girl's name is Rachel. She seems nice, but I don't know. I hope I make some friends soon. During lunch I sit down at a table alone. Next thing I know, Rachel sits next to me. We talk for what seems like a century, and it turns out that I actually enjoy her company. After a few weeks, Rachel and I become friends.

Chapter 4 (Abby)

When I see the new girl Emily hanging out with Rachel, I get angry. How can someone so social hang out with someone so quiet and lonely? My blood boils just by thinking about it. Looks like I have to do something about it so that it doesn't happen again.

Chapter 5 (Rachel)

In art class, I don't know anyone except for a girl named Abby. She has never really talked to me until now. She talks to me a lot about Emily which is weird because she didn't seem to care about her until now. After a few weeks, we become friends, but not as good as Emily and I.

Chapter 6 (Emily)

I start to see this girl named Abby hang out with Rachel. I don't know if this is true, but I think that she doesn't like me. Everytime I talk to Rachel, she gives me a mean glare. After a few weeks, Rachel and I have spread apart. I hope that this is not the end of our friendship.

Chapter 7 (Rachel)

Abby has been telling me bad things about Emily. She keeps telling me that Emily is not good enough for me, but I don't listen to her. I do seem to notice that Emily has stopped talking to me. It seems like we are starting growing apart now.

Chapter 8 (Abby)

My plan is working. I have been noticing that Emily and Rachel are not talking as much as they used to, and I'm going to keep it like that. I will tell Emily that Rachel doesn't like her, and also that she would rather be friends with me. My plan is going perfectly!

Chapter 9 (Emily)

I was walking down the halls when I accidentally bump into Abby. "Sorry." I mumble. "Oh, it's you Emily. Rachel told me to tell you that she doesn't like you anymore and that she would prefer me over you any day." She then stalks of leaving me there speechless. I am starting to think that what Abby said is true. I have noticed all of the signs lately. I guess it's over between us.

Chapter 10 (Rachel)

Abby has been telling me lately to ditch Emily. I am starting to think that I should. I have noticed that she is avoiding me. Abby also told me that Emily has been glaring at her lately. The way she is acting towards Abby is mean. I walk up to Emily during lunch and tell her everything that I must say “Emily, I don’t like the way that you are treating Abby. You are not a very good friend. When I first met you I thought that you were nice, but now I see your true colors! You are not the type of friend that I want!” After hearing my last word she runs out of the cafeteria with tears rolling down her eyes. I guess I said a little too much, but I don’t care! She’s been horrible towards Abby and that makes me mad!

Chapter 11 (Emily)

I look at myself in the bathroom mirror. My eyes are red and puffy from crying. I look at my tear streaked face, I never said or did anything to Abby! She was just making it all up! Our friendship was fine before Abby came in. She ruined everything, and I am pretty sure that she did it on purpose. I just can’t believe her! Why did she do this? I never said anything to her. I will never forgive her and Rachel for what they did!

Chapter 12 (Abby)

This is going great! Now that Emily and Rachel aren’t friends, I can get rid of Rachel! She is not the kind of friend that anyone would want. And now that they are no longer friends, I can end things with Rachel.

Chapter 13 (Rachel)

Abby no longer talks to me. I don't know why. It started after Emily and I stopped being friends. Abby has left me, and I am starting to regret leaving Emily. I am going to try to apologize, but I don't know if she will forgive me.

Chapter 14 (Emily)

Rachel just apologized to me and I forgave her. Everyone deserves second chances, and I know that Rachel and I will stay good friends. Nothing can break us apart ever again!
