that I could time travel to Halloween for eternity. As I walk from school to my house I can already see trick or treaters walk by . So I start running home . Which was a BIG mistake because I forgot to pick my siblings up from school .

Can't wait to be yelled at by mom and dad. Anyway, I went back to pick them up and sure enough mom and dad were there . GREAT! And on top of that I got yelled at . When I got home I put my costume on and went down stairs to be laughed at . I wondered what was the big laugh about and soon remembered that when me and my siblings were little we practiced trick or treating the night before Halloween. So I guess that's what I get for forgetting my siblings . 9:00 pm finally my siblings are asleep it takes hours to put them to sleep . So now is my chance to ask mom and dad if I could go to Forest Great . Here goes nothing " Mom, Dad can I go to Forest Great with Natily, Ashely, Ricky, and Anna?" I asked. And to my surprise mom said " why yes as long as you take your sisters and brother with you." " Umm... don't you think its a little over rated for a 5, 6, and 10 yr old?" " Well" said mom" If you can go why can't they " At this point , I didnt want to argue so I just went upstairs.I stayed up late thinking about what would go down tomorrow with mom. But eventuly I fell asleep . Tuesday, I realize now that I forgot to write Monday yesterday . But it's a-ok . 6:30pm I also forgot to write the time .Sorry.

So let's focus on the present right now . I just found out that all my friends can't make it today so there is no point in going. 7:45 pm I have to take my siblings trick or treating so that means I get to walk by Forest Great . 8:00pm we are almost home but Forest Great is comming up so I'm going in. OK we are in and made it half way I think. Umm... we are lost but I don't tell my folks (siblings) that because they will flip out . What to do What to do, I went back and forth trying to figure something out and when I got it I realized that I said we are lost out loud and lost my siblings . OMG! this can't be happening. I do still have a little light from the lamp post so that should be helpful.

And they are out .I'm scared no mom no dad no siblings . Finaly I hear a faint was mad that none of my friends were there . THE END Thank you miss four sentences . Have a wonderful day
