

The Zombie Joke

By: Tingkai w.

It was a dark and stormy night. The lightning was roaring outside Tombutt's room as he watched the Case of the Chucky and ate popcorn. Suddenly, the lights went out! Tombutt was scared as he got up from the sofa to see what had happened. Then there was a scary guy knock on the front door! Tombutt carefully opened the door. He opened with relief; it was just his friend Bob. But as Tombutt opened the door he screamed in terror. Bob was covered in zombie skin, and his whole body was all ripped to shreds. "Bob why is your body all ripped into shred?" Tombutt stammered, " Why is your face all green?"

"MREHHGGRRNG!!" He moaned in reply, and began walking into the house very weird like a zombie.

"Zombie!" cried Tombutt, and he scramed down the hall like a mad bird. He grabbed a trash can lid for protection and turn to face the zombie at the door. But to his friend, the zombie was laughing! Then he saw five friends huddled outside laughing loudly! Then Badly, Tombutt slammed the door. It was all a joke! After his body stopped beating so fast, he began to laugh. What a crazy Zombie joke!
