

George and Max's Christmas

By: Emma O.

It was Christmas morning, 4 year old George was running down the stairs. Under the tree he saw a wiggling box. He first read the tag. "To George From Santa Claus," read George. So he quickly opened the box. Inside was a dog! Quickly George thought of a name. He decided to name him Max. As George grew up he always loved Max.

When George was 20 he still had Max. Then one Tuesday morning Max was gone! After school he started making posters and searched for Max. But after weeks and weeks and weeks he still couldn't find Max. When he walked by the pet store he saw a dog that looked like Max! When he went to the manager, he saw it was William. George knew him since kindergarten and William always did some dirty trick on him. When William saw George he said "I tricked your dog into going into my pet store". Then someone bought Max!

George tried to buy Max back from the man who bought Max. But the man said no even though George even offered $100. But George kept trying to get Max back. Christmas was soon which made George remember getting Max on Christmas which made him feel sad. Meanwhile the man who bought Max looked up George on Facebook and found out about Max. A week later it was Christmas then George heard a knock on his door. George opened the door and it was the man and Max! "I found out about you and Max so I thought you would like him back," said the man. It was George's favorite Christmas ever!
